

Imparting and Accepting the Wisdom of God

1 Corinthians 2:6-16

Main Idea: Imparting and accepting the wisdom of God is the work of the Holy Spirit both in and through those who proclaim and those who hear.

Imparting the wisdom of God is the work of the Holy Spirit.

6 Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away.

Therefore we impart the wisdom of God to all believers by the work of the Holy Spirit. .

7 But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.

8 None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him"—

Our love for God is dependent on the work of the Holy Spirit in the life of believers.

10 these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

- John 16:13-15

Accepting the wisdom of God is the work of the Holy Spirit.

11 For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God.

13 And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual

14 The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

15 The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. 16 “For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” ...who is able to understand such that we might offer him counsel and insight.

So What?

- Am I trusting the wisdom of this age or the Holy Spirit? For what???? To figure it out...
 - Acts 2:37-39
